Sadly, 2021 has already seen at least 28 transgender or gender non-conforming people fatally shot or killed by other violent means. We say at least because too often these stories go unreported — or misreported. In previous years, the majority of these people were Black and Latinx transgender women.

In 2020, HRC tracked a record number of violent fatal incidents against transgender abolitionandy As of this past year, several states have passed or are pushing anti-Trans, anti-LGBTQ and anti-abortion legislation that as always mainly targets Black and Brown Trans people. As we celebrate pride, let's not forget that as Marsha P. Johnson would say "No pride for some of us without liberation for all of us!". Our Black and Brown Trans siblings are under attack. Love is a Riot and I love my Black and Brown Trans siblings and I will do anything to fight until we're all free. By any means necessary.

Join us this Saturday. Queer Liberation! Not rainbow capitalism! Location drop morning of event!

Sheriff Villanueva announces plan to clear Boardwalk encampments by July 4

CrashAlert - 19 hours ago - featured, news

Villanueva said his department will work with the LAPD and use every pathway available to safely move individuals including Project Roomkey beds, City and County shelters, no profit housing facilities and approved camping sites.

"We're going to designate where people can pop up their tents, but it's not going to be in the middle of a tourist destination destroying businesses," said Villanueva. "This is not Venice. This is a horror show that's been foisted on this community."

Both crime and homelessness have skyrocketed on the Boardwalk since the start of the pandemic, hamstringing the economic recovery of local businesses and terrorizing residents.

🚩 JUNE 15th is JUSTICE FOR JANITORS DAY 🚩

We celebrate #JusticeForJanitors Day tomorrow - June 15th - to commemorate the janitors who peacefully protested for the right to form a union in Los Angeles on June 15, 1990.

More than 30 years ago, as they marched through the city streets, they were beaten by the police - sending more than 60 janitors to the hospital. The confrontation—caught on news cameras & covered by media outlets throughout the world—led to an outpouring of public support for janitors & they won their union.

The victory inspired thousands of underpaid workers of color—janitors, security officers & airport workers—to form unions & win better lives for themselves, their families & communities.

This week Janitors are in the streets again demanding companies provide fair pay, healthcare, paid sick days, PPE, safe working conditions to all essential workers.

SI SE PUEDE!

ALL HANDS ON DECK 🇺🇸 The City's sit, sleep, lie ban will be put forward at council tomorrow at 10 am. We need everyone to call in to show that the criminalization of homelessness is not supported in LA. #ServicesNotSweeps

The last time City Council voted on 41.18 Joe quietly put forward a motion to resume brutal sweeps in his district the same day.

Oct 28, 2020

We're at @JoeBuscaino's house to shame him for authoring the motion to resume CARE+ sweeps throughout LA and today's motion to criminalize sitting, sleeping, and lying down on the sidewalk. Joe, stop the sweeps, stop criminalizing homelessness, and commandeer the hotels.

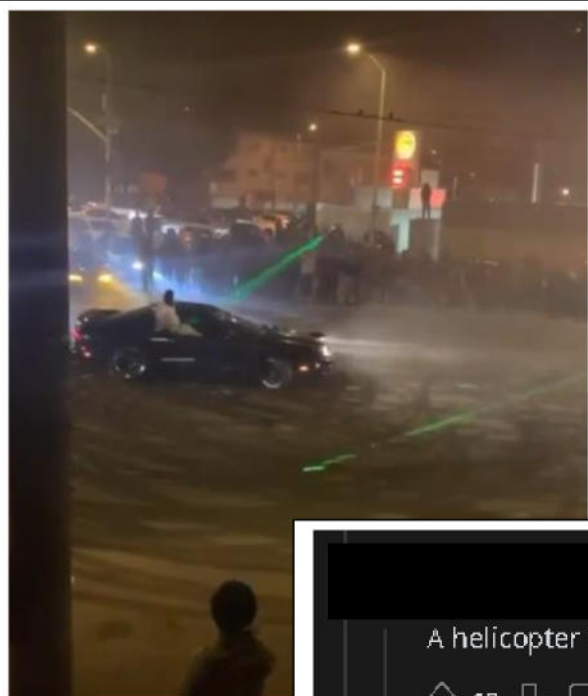

8h

When @CityAttorneyLA released his draft ordinance last year, over 100 activists showed up at his doorstep within hours.

Oct 26, 2020

When we showed up at Mike Feuer's house tonight, he attempted to explain that his "goal is not to criminalize people." @CityAttorneyLA, how do you explain the proposed 41.18(d) which makes it illegal to sit, sleep, and lie down in any public space if "shelter" is "offered?"

These things are organized via Instagram. Notice how all the car have their ig tags on them? Someone picks a starting point and they hit multiple intersections a night and they are only given the intersections once they leave the meet location.
